Amidah

(Congregation rises)

Reader: My Lord, open my lips, that my mouth may declare Your praise. Blessed are You, YHVH, our Elohim and the Elohim of our forefathers, Elohim of Abraham, Elohim of Isaac, and Elohim of Jacob; the great, mighty and awesome Elohim, the supreme Elohim, who bestows beneficial kindnesses and creates everything, who recalls the kindnesses of the patriarchs and brings a Redeemer to their children's children, for His Name's sake, with love.

All: Remember us for life, O King who desires life, and inscribe us in the Book of Life—for Your sake, O Living Elohim. O King, Helper, Savior and Shield, blessed are You, YHVH, Shield of Abraham. You are eternally mighty, my YHVH, the Resuscitator of the dead are You; abundantly able to save.

Reader: He sustains the living with kindness, resuscitates the dead with abundant mercy, supports the fallen, heals the sick, releases the confined and maintains His faith to those asleep in the dust. Who is like You, O Master of mighty deeds, and who is comparable to You, O King who causes death and restores life and makes salvation sprout! Who is like You, who recalls His creatures mercifully for life! And You are faithful to resuscitate the dead. Blessed are You, YHVH, who resuscitates the dead.

All: You are holy and Your Name is holy, and holy ones praise You every day, forever. Blessed are You, YHVH, the holy King.

You make the day to pass and the night to approach, and divide the day from the night, YHVH of hosts is Your Name: an Elohim living and enduring continually, may You reign over us forever and ever. Blessed are You, O YHVH, who brings on the evening twilight.

All: And may You never take away Your love from us. Blessed are You, YHVH, who loves Your people Israel.

(Congregation is seated.)

Blessings of the Shema

Reader: Blessed are You, YHVH, our Elohim, King of the universe, who forms light and creates darkness, makes peace and creates all. He who illuminates the earth and those who dwell upon it, with compassion; and in His goodness renews daily, perpetually, the work of creation. How great are Your works, YHVH, You make them all with wisdom, the world is full of Your possessions. The King who was exalted in solitude before creation, who is praised, glorified, and upraised since days of old. Eternal Elohim, with Your abundant compassion be compassionate to us—O Master of our power, our rocklike stronghold, O Shield of our salvation, be a stronghold for us. The Blessed Elohim, who is great in knowledge, prepared and worked on the rays of the sun; the Beneficent One fashioned honor for His Name, embraced luminaries all around His power; the leaders of His legions, holy ones, exalt the Almighty, constantly relate the honor of Elohim and His Sanctity. May You be blessed, YHVH, our Elohim, beyond the praises of Your handiwork and beyond the bright luminaries that You have made—may they glorify You—Selah!

All: May You be blessed, our Rock, our King and Redeemer, Creator of holy ones; may Your Name be praised forever, our King, O fashioner of ministering angels; all of whose ministering angels stand at the summit of the universe and proclaim—with awe, together, loudly—the words of the living Elohim and King of the universe.

Reader: Great has been Your love for us and Your compassion boundless. Our fathers put their trust in You and You did teach them the law of life. Be gracious also unto us that we may understand and fulfill the teachings of Your word. Enlighten our eyes in Your Torah that we may cling unto Your commandments, even as Shaul wrote, “For not the hearers of the Torah are just before Elohim, but the doers of the Torah will be justified.” Unite our hearts to love and revere You. We trust in You and rejoice in Your saving power, for from You comes our help. You have called us and drawn us close to You to serve You in faithfulness.

All: “Blessed is the glory of YHVH from His place.” Happy is the man who knows You and delights greatly in Your commandments. Happy is the man whose strength is in You, in whose heart are Your ways. Joyfully do we lift up our voices and proclaim Your unity. Praise be unto You, YHVH, who in Your love has called Your people Israel and all nations to serve You.

Reader: To the blessed Elohim they shall offer sweet melodies; to the King, the living and enduring Elohim, they shall sing hymns and proclaim praises. For He alone effects mighty deeds, makes new things, is Master of wars, sows kindnesses, makes salvations flourish, creates cures, is too awesome for praise, is YHVH of wonders. In His goodness He renews daily, perpetually, the work of creation. As it is said: “[Give thanks] to Him who makes the luminaries, for His kindness endures forever.” May You shine a new light on Zion, and may we all speedily merit its light. Blessed are You, YHVH, who fashions the luminaries. Blessed are You who has given the true light of Messiah.

All: Amein.

Reader: With an abundant love have You loved us, YHVH, our Elohim; with exceedingly great pity have You pitied us. Our Father, our King, for the sake of our forefathers who trusted in You and whom You taught the decrees of life, may You be equally gracious to us and teach us. Our Father, the merciful Father, who acts mercifully, have mercy upon us, instill in our hearts to understand and to elucidate, to listen, learn, teach, safeguard, perform, and fulfill all the words of Your Torah’s teaching with love.

Enlighten our eyes in Your Torah, attach our hearts to Your commandments, and unify our hearts to love and fear Your Name, and may we not feel inner shame for all eternity. Because we have trusted in Your great and awesome holy Name, may we rejoice in Your salvation. Bring us in peacefulness from the four corners of the earth and lead us with upright pride to our land. For You effect salvations, O Elohim; You have chosen us from among every people and tongue. And You have brought us close to Your great Name forever in truth, to offer praiseful thanks to You, YHVH, who chooses His people Israel with love.

Opening prayer.

Hineni

All: O behold me, destitute of good works, trembling and terrified, in dread of You, who inhabits the praises of Israel, standing in Your presence to supplicate You, for Your people Israel, who have deputed me. Although I am not properly qualified for it, yet do I beseech You, O Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, O YHVH, merciful and gracious, almighty and tremendous Elohim, prosper my attempt, in standing in Your presence, to seek mercy for myself and for those who have sent me. Do not account them guilty for my sin, nor condemn them for my iniquities, for I am a sinner and transgressor. O suffer them not to be confounded for my transgressions, nor be ashamed of me, nor may I be ashamed of them. Accept my prayer as the prayer of a grave and venerable and righteous person, whose voice is sweet and acceptable to mankind. Rebuke Satan that he may not accuse us; and may our assembling be acceptable to You, and in love cover all our transgressions.

(Congregation rises.)

Amidah

Reader: My Lord, open my lips, that my mouth may declare Your praise. Blessed are You, YHVH, our Elohim and the Elohim of our forefathers, Elohim of Abraham, Elohim of Isaac, and Elohim of Jacob; the great, mighty and awesome Elohim, the supreme Elohim, who bestows beneficial kindnesses and creates everything, who recalls the kindnesses of the patriarchs and brings a Redeemer to their children's children, for His Name's sake, with love.

All: Remember us for life, O King who desires life, and inscribe us in the Book of Life—for Your sake, O Living Elohim. O King, Helper, Savior and Shield, blessed are You, YHVH, Shield of Abraham. You are eternally mighty, my Lord, the Resuscitator of the dead are You; abundantly able to save.

Reader: He sustains the living with kindness, resuscitates the dead with abundant mercy, supports the fallen, heals the sick, releases the confined and maintains His faith to those asleep in the dust. Who is like You, O Master of mighty deeds, and who is comparable to You, O King who causes death and restores life and makes salvation sprout! Who is like You, who recalls His creatures mercifully for life! And You are faithful to resuscitate the dead. Blessed are You, YHVH, who resuscitates the dead.

All: You are holy and Your Name is holy, and holy ones praise You every day, forever. Blessed are You, YHVH, the holy King.

Blessings of the Shema

Reader: Blessed are You, YHVH, our Elohim, King of the Universe, who forms light and creates darkness, makes peace and creates all. He who illuminates the earth and those who dwell upon it, with compassion; and in His goodness renews daily, perpetually, the work of creation. How great are Your works, YHVH, You make them all with wisdom, the world is full of Your possessions. The King who was exalted in solitude before creation, who is praised, glorified, and upraised since days of old. Eternal Elohim, with Your abundant compassion be compassionate to us—O Master of our power, our rocklike stronghold, O Shield of our salvation, be a stronghold for us. The Blessed Elohim, who is great in knowledge, prepared and worked on the rays of the sun; the Beneficent One fashioned honor for His Name, embraced luminaries all around His power; the leaders of His legions, holy ones, exalt the Almighty, constantly relate the honor of Elohim and His Sanctity. May You be blessed, YHVH, our Elohim, beyond the praises of Your handiwork and beyond the bright luminaries that You have made—may they glorify You—Selah!

All: May You be blessed, our Rock, our King and Redeemer, Creator of holy ones; may Your Name be praised forever, our King, O fashioner of ministering angels; all of whose ministering angels stand at the summit of the universe and proclaim—with awe, together, loudly—the words of the living Elohim and King of the universe.

Reader: Great has been Your love for us and Your compassion boundless. Our fathers put their trust in You and You did teach them the law of life. Be gracious also unto us that we may understand and fulfill the teachings of Your word. Enlighten our eyes in Your Torah that we may cling unto Your commandments, even as Shaul wrote, “For not the hearers of the Torah are just before Elohim, but the doers of the Torah will be justified.” Unite our hearts to love and revere You. We trust in You and rejoice in Your saving power, for from You comes our help. You have called us and drawn us close to You to serve You in faithfulness.

All: “Blessed is the glory of YHVH from His place.” Happy is the man who knows You and delights greatly in Your commandments. Happy is the man whose strength is in You, in whose heart are Your ways. Joyfully do we lift up our voices and proclaim Your unity. Praise be unto You, YHVH, who in Your love has called Your people Israel and all nations to serve You.

Reader: To the blessed Elohim they shall offer sweet melodies; to the King, the living and enduring Elohim, they shall sing hymns and proclaim praises. For He alone effects mighty deeds, makes new things, is Master of wars, sows kindnesses, makes salvations flourish, creates cures, is too awesome for praise, is YHVH of wonders. In His goodness He renews daily, perpetually, the work of creation. As it is said: “[Give thanks] to Him who makes the luminaries, for His kindness endures forever.” May You shine a new light on Zion, and may we all speedily merit its light. Blessed are You, YHVH, who fashions the luminaries. Blessed are You who has given the true light of Messiah.

All: Amen.

Reader: With an abundant love have You loved us, YHVH, our Elohim; with exceedingly great pity have You pitied us. Our Father, our King, for the sake of our forefathers who trusted in You and whom You taught the decrees of life, may You be equally gracious to us and teach us. Our Father, the merciful Father, who acts mercifully, have mercy upon us, instill in our hearts to understand and to elucidate, to listen, learn, teach, safeguard, perform, and fulfill all the words of Your Torah’s teaching with love.

Enlighten our eyes in Your Torah, attach our hearts to Your commandments, and unify our hearts to love and fear Your Name, and may we not feel inner shame for all eternity. Because we have trusted in Your great and awesome holy Name, may we rejoice in Your salvation. Bring us in peacefulness from the four corners of the earth and lead us with upright pride to our land. For You effect salvations, O Elohim; You have chosen us from among every people and tongue. And You have brought us close to Your great Name forever in truth, to offer praiseful thanks to You, YHVH, who chooses His people Israel with love.

Leviticus 16:30, 31

Reader: For on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins shall you be clean before YHVH. It is a Sabbath rest unto you, and you shall afflict your souls; it is a statute forever.

Psalm 130

Reader: Out of the depths I call You, YHVH, listen to my cry; let Your ears be attentive to my plea for mercy. If You keep account of sins, YHVH, YHVH who will survive? Yours is the power to forgive so that You may be held in awe. I look to YHVH; I look to Him; I await His word. I am more eager for YHVH than watchmen for the morning, watchmen for the morning. O Israel, wait for YHVH; for with YHVH is steadfast love and great power to redeem. It is He who will redeem Israel from all their iniquities.

Opening Prayer

Reader: Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, as evening casts its shadows over the earth, ushering in the most solemn day of the year, we join with our fellow Israelites throughout the world in prayer, meditation, and repentance. We put aside all petty thoughts and desires. What is our life, and of what avail our strength? What is our wealth, and to what purpose our power? We lift our eyes unto You, YHVH, and yearn for Your light and inspiration. On this Erev Yom Kippur night, sanctified by sacred memories, united with the generations of the past, recalling the piety and devotion of our ancestors, we stand in Your presence stripped of all pretense and revealed in all our weakness. You see all things, and You alone know how frail and fragile we are.

All: We aim toward lofty heights, but temptation overcomes us. Greed and vanity blind our eyes, envy and arrogance eat into the marrow of our bones, false ambitions bring us bitter remorse, and selfishness dwarfs our souls. We are creatures of haphazard living. We stumble and fall; we grope and wander. YHVH, strengthen us in our weak moments and guide our faltering footsteps. Speak to our hearts with the still small voice of Your Spirit so that we may search our ways and return to You. Cause us to be forgiving even as we ask to be forgiven. Cause us to discover the faults of our ways and the errors into which we have fallen, so that we may not repeat the trespasses for which we repent this day.

Reader: We need You, O Elohim. Only when we seek You do we have fortitude, vision, and hope. Out of the depths of our hearts do we call upon You. O hearken unto our voice and attend to our prayer. Turn our hearts unto You, YHVH, that we might serve You with a whole heart. On this sacred night, may we heed the admonition of Your prophet, to cast away our sins and transgressions and make us a new heart and a new spirit. Amein.

Reader: Yet even now, says YHVH, turn to Me with all your heart, and with fasting and with weeping and with lamentations.

All: Rend your hearts, and not your garments, and turn unto YHVH, your Elohim; for He is gracious and compassionate.

Reader: Seek YHVH while He may be found; call upon Him while He is yet near.

All: Then when you call, I YHVH, will answer, and when you cry, I will say, "Here I am."

Reader: Let the wicked forsake his way, and the man of iniquity his thoughts.

All: And let him return unto YHVH, and He will have compassion on him; to our Elohim, for He will abundantly pardon.

Reader: Evil and abomination does YHVH hate, and He does not let it come near to them that worship Him.

All: Life and death are before man; that which he desires shall be given him.

Reader: Blessed are You, YHVH, our Elohim, King of the universe, by whose Word the shadows of evening fall and by Your wisdom the gates of the heavens are opened. Your wisdom established the changes of times and seasons and ordered the ways of the stars in their heavenly courses. You create day and night, rolling away the light from before the darkness, and the darkness from before the light. Your salvation shall be forever, and Your favor shall not fail. O ever living Elohim, may You rule over us for all eternity. Blessed are You, YHVH, who brings on the evening twilight.

All: With everlasting love You have loved the house of Israel, teaching us Your Torah and commandments, Your statutes and judgments. Therefore, YHVH, our Elohim, when we lie down and when we rise up, we will meditate on Your teachings and rejoice in the words of Your Torah and in its commandments at all times, for they are our life and the length of our days. Day and night we will meditate on them so that Your love may never depart from us.

Blessed are You, YHVH, who loves Your people Israel.

All: And you shall love YHVH, your Elohim, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might. And these words, which I command you this day, shall be upon your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children; you shall speak of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. You shall bind them for a sign upon your hand and they shall be for frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them upon the doorposts of your house and upon your gates. And you shall love your neighbor as yourself.

Responsive Reading
(Psalm 139:1-10, 23-24)

Reader: YHVH, You have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I rise up; You understand my thoughts from afar.

All: You scrutinize my path and my lying down, and are intimately acquainted with all my ways. Even before there is a word on my tongue, behold, YHVH, You know it all.

Reader: You have enclosed me behind and before, and laid Your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is too high, I cannot attain to it.

All: Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? If I ascend to the heavens, You are there. If I make my bed in Sh'ol, behold, You are there. If I take the wings of the dawn, if I dwell in the remotest part of the sea, even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will lay hold of me. O Elohim who dwells on high, what can we say to You? You who are in heaven, what can we declare in Your presence; You know whatever is open or hidden. You know the mysteries of the universe and the dark secrets of every living soul. You know and search the innermost chambers of our conscience; nothing escapes You, nothing is hidden from Your sight.

Reader: Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, forgive us for all our sins, pardon us for all our iniquities, and grant us remission from all our wickedness.

All: Search me, O Elohim, and know my heart; try me, and know my anxieties; and see if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Call of Repentance

Tekiah: Teruah: Shevarim: Tekiah

Reader: Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, pardon our iniquities on this Atonement Day. Remove our transgressions and our sins, and make them pass away from before Your eyes; as it is written in Scripture: "I, even I, am He that removes your transgressions for My own sake; I have blotted out as a cloud your transgressions, and, as a mist, your sins; return unto Me for I have redeemed you." Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, forgive us for our sins, satisfy us with Your goodness, and gladden us in Your Salvation.

All: Make our hearts pure to serve You in truth for You are the Forgiver of Israel, and besides You we have no King who pardons and forgives. Blessed are You, YHVH, our King who pardons and forgives our iniquities, the iniquities of the house of Israel, and all those who seek You in humility.

Reader: Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers! May our prayer come before You. Do not hide Yourself from our supplication, for we are neither arrogant nor so hardened as to say before You, YHVH our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, “We are righteous and have not sinned;” truly, we have sinned.

All: We have sinned, we have coveted, we have born false witness, we have stolen, we have committed adultery, we have murdered, we have dishonored our father and our mother, we have not remembered and kept Your Shabbat, but delighted in our own. We have taken Your Name in vain; we have carved, formed, and bowed down to other elohim. We have forgotten that You, YHVH brought us out of Egypt. Our obedience and giving have come out of obligation and not the joy of our hearts. We have allowed Your words to be taken from our hearts and slander, gossip, and lies have been on our lips. We have formed lies, scoffed, revolted and been stiff-necked. We have gone astray, we have led others astray, and we have turned away from Your commandments and judgments that are good, and nothing was gained by it. But You are righteous in all that has come upon us for You have acted truthfully, but we have acted wickedly.

Reader: What shall we say before You, O Elohim who dwells on high, and what shall we declare before You, who abides in the heavens? You know all things, both the hidden and the revealed.

All: You know the mysteries of the universe and the hidden secrets of all living. You search out the heart of man and probe all our thoughts and aspirations. Nothing escapes Your knowledge, neither is anything concealed from Your sight.

Reader: May it be Your will, YHVH, our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, to forgive us all our sins, to pardon all our iniquities, and to cover all our transgressions.

Al Chet*
(For the sin which)

All: For the sin which we committed in Your sight brought about because of our pride, and for the sin we committed against You by our unbelief.

For the sin we committed in Your sight in not looking to You, our First Love, and for the sin we committed against You through our lack of trust in Your word.

For the sin we committed in Your sight unintentionally, and for the sin we committed against You publicly and privately.

For the sin we committed knowingly and deceptively, and for the sin we committed against You by offensive speech.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by oppressing a fellow man, and for the sin we committed against You by evil thoughts.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by casting off responsibility, and for the sin we committed against You in passing judgment.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by plotting against men, and for the sin we committed against You by sordid selfishness.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by levity of mind, and for the sin we committed against You by being obstinate.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by murmuring, and the sin we committed against You by complaining.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by running to do evil, and for the sin we committed against You by groundless hatred.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by gossiping, and for the sin we committed against You by swearing falsely.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by breach of trust, and for the sin we committed against You by a confused heart.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by violence, and for the sin we committed against You by profaning the Divine Name.

We thank You, YHVH, for though You are slow to anger, You are compassionate, merciful, and quick to forgive us from all our transgressions and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness!

Reader: Though He should be exceedingly angry with His people, yet will the Holy One not awaken all His wrath. We have been cut off through our evil deeds, yet You, O our Rock, have not destroyed us. Our Righteous Anointed is departed from us, horror has seized us, and we have none to justify us. He has borne the yoke of our iniquities and our transgressions. He bears our sins on his shoulder that he may find pardon for our iniquities. We shall be healed by his wounds, at the time that the Eternal will create him (the Messiah) as a new creature. O bring him up from the circle of the earth. Raise him up from Seir, to assemble us the second time on Mount Lebanon, by the hand of Yinnon.

All: Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, lovingkindness and mercy unto us, and unto all Israel, Your people. Bless us, O our Father, even all of us together, with the light of Your countenance, for by the light of Your countenance You have given us, O YHVH, our Elohim, the Law of life, lovingkindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace. May it be good in Your sight to bless Your people Israel at all times and in every hour with Your peace. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before You, we and all Your people the house of Israel, for a happy life and for peace. Blessed are You, O YHVH, who makes peace.

All: It is for us to praise the Lord of all, to proclaim the greatness of the Creator of the universe, for He hath not made us like the nations of the lands, nor placed us like the families of the earth. He has not made our destiny like theirs, nor cast our lot with all their multitude. We bend the knee, worship and give thanks unto the King of kings, the Holy One, blessed be He.

Reader: Seek YHVH while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the man of iniquity his thoughts. Let him return unto YHVH, and He will have mercy upon him; and to our Elohim, for He will abundantly pardon. But You are an Elohim ready to forgive, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, plenteous in lovingkindness, and abounding in goodness. You delight in the repentance of the wicked and have no pleasure in their death. As it is said, “Say unto them, As I live, says YHVH, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will you die? O house of Israel?” And it is said, “Have I at all any pleasure in the death of the wicked, says YHVH, and not rather that he should return from his way and live?” And it is said, “For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dies, says YHVH; Turn yourselves and live.”

And when this age ceases, He will still reign in majesty. He was, is and shall be all glorious eternally. Incomparable, He is One, no other can share His Name, without beginning and without end, and His is the strength and majesty. He is my living God who saves, my rock when trials or grief befall, my banner and my strong refuge, my full cup when I call. All: O behold me, destitute of good works, trembling and terrified, in dread of You, who inhabits the praises of Israel, standing in Your presence to supplicate You, for Your people Israel, who have deputed me. Although I am not properly qualified for it, yet do I beseech You, O Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, O YHVH, merciful and gracious, almighty and tremendous Elohim, prosper my attempt, in standing in Your presence, to seek mercy for myself and for those who have sent me. Do not account them guilty for my sin, nor condemn them for my iniquities, for I am a sinner and transgressor. O suffer them not to be confounded for my transgressions, nor be ashamed of me, nor may I be ashamed of them. Accept my prayer as the prayer of a grave and venerable and righteous person, whose voice is sweet and acceptable to mankind. Rebuke Satan that he may not accuse us; and may our assembling be acceptable to You, and in love cover all our transgressions.

Reader: Blessed are You, YHVH, our Elohim, King of the universe, by whose Word the shadows of evening fall and by Your wisdom the gates of the heavens are opened. You create day and night, rolling away the light from before the darkness, and the darkness from before the light. Your salvation shall be forever, and Your favor shall not fail. Therefore, YHVH, our Elohim, when we lie down and when we rise up, we will meditate on Your teachings and rejoice in the words of Your Torah and in its commandments at all times, for they are our life and the length of our days. Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, forgive us for our sins, satisfy us with Your goodness, and gladden us in Your Salvation.

All: Make our hearts pure to serve You in truth for You are the Forgiver of Israel, and besides You we have no King who pardons and forgives. Blessed are You, YHVH, our King who pardons and forgives our iniquities, the iniquities of the house of Israel, and all those who seek You in humility.

Reader: Our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers! May our prayer come before You. Do not hide Yourself from our supplication, for we are neither arrogant nor so hardened as to say before You, YHVH our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, “we are righteous and have not sinned;” truly, we have sinned.

All: We have sinned, we have coveted, we have born false witness, we have stolen, we have committed adultery, we have murdered, we have dishonored our father and our mother, we have not remembered and kept Your Shabbat, but delighted in our own. We have taken Your Name in vain; we have carved, formed, and bowed down to other elohim. We have forgotten that You, YHVH brought us out of Egypt. Our obedience and giving have come out of obligation and not the joy of our hearts. We have allowed Your words to be taken from our hearts and slander, gossip, and lies have been on our lips. We have formed lies, scoffed, revolted and been stiff-necked. We have gone astray, led others astray, and have turned away from Your commandments and judgments that are good and nothing was gained by it. But You are righteous in all that has come upon us for You have acted truthfully, but we have acted wickedly.

Reader: What shall we say before You, O Elohim who dwells on high, and what shall we declare before You, who abides in the heavens? You know all things, both the hidden and the revealed.

All: You know the mysteries of the universe and the hidden secrets of all living. You search out the heart of man and probe all our thoughts and aspirations. Nothing escapes Your knowledge, neither is anything concealed from Your sight.

Reader: May it be Your will, YHVH, our Elohim and Elohim of our fathers, to forgive us all our sins, to pardon all our iniquities, and to cover all our transgressions.

* Al Chet
(For the sin which)

All: For the sin which we committed in Your sight brought about because of our pride, and for the sin we committed against You by our unbelief.

For the sin we committed in Your sight in not looking to You, our First Love, and for the sin we committed against You through our lack of trust in Your word.

For the sin we committed in Your sight unintentionally, and for the sin we committed against You publicly and privately.

For the sin we committed knowingly and deceptively, and for the sin we committed against You by offensive speech.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by oppressing a fellow man, and for the sin we committed against You by evil thoughts.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by casting off responsibility, and for the sin we committed against You in passing judgment.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by plotting against men, and for the sin we committed against You by sordid selfishness.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by levity of mind, and for the sin we committed against You by being obstinate.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by murmuring, and the sin we committed against You by complaining.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by running to do evil, and for the sin we committed against You by groundless hatred.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by gossiping, and for the sin we committed against You by swearing falsely.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by breach of trust, and for the sin we committed against You by a confused heart.

For the sin we committed in Your sight by violence, and for the sin we committed against You by profaning the Divine Name.

We thank You, YHVH, for though You are slow to anger, You are compassionate, merciful, and quick to forgive us from all our transgressions and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness!

Reader: Though He should be exceedingly angry with His people, yet will the Holy One not awaken all His wrath. We have been cut off through our evil deeds, yet You, O our Rock, have not brought destruction on us. Our Righteous Anointed is departed from us, horror has seized us, and we have none to justify us. He has borne the yoke of our iniquities and our transgressions. He bears our sins on his shoulder that he may find pardon for our iniquities. We shall be healed by his wounds, at the time that the eternal will create him (the Messiah) as a new creature. O bring him up from the circle of the earth. Raise him up from Seir, to assemble us the second time on Mount Lebanon, by the hand of Yinnon.

Memorial Prayer

All: YHVH, what is man that You recognize him? The son of a frail human that You reckon with him? Man is like a breath, his days are like a passing shadow. In the morning it blossoms and is rejuvenated, by evening it is cut down and brittle. According to the count of our days, so You may teach us; then we shall acquire a heart of wisdom. Safeguard the perfect and watch the upright, for the destiny of that man is peace. But God will redeem my soul from the grip of the lower world, for He will take me, Selah! My flesh and my heart yearn—Rock of my heart, and my portion is God forever. Thus the dust returns to the ground as it was, and the Spirit returns to Elohim who gave it.

Psalm 91

All: Whoever sits in the refuge of the Most High, he shall dwell in the shadow of the Almighty, I will say of YHVH, He is my refuge and fortress, my Elohim, I will trust in Him. That He will deliver you from the ensnaring trap and from devastating pestilence. With His pinions He will cover you and beneath His wings you will be protected; shield and armor is His truth.

You shall not be afraid of the terror of the night nor of the arrow that flies by day; nor the pestilence that walks in gloom, nor the destroyer who lays waste at noon. Let a thousand encamp at your side and a myriad at your right hand, but to you they shall not approach. You will merely peer with your eyes and you will see the retribution of the wicked. Because you said, You YHVH are my refuge, you have made the Most High your dwelling place. No evil will befall you, nor will any plague come near your tent. He will charge His angels for you, to protect you in all your ways. On your palms they will carry you, lest you strike your foot against a stone. Upon the lion and the viper you will tread; you will trample the young lion and the serpent. For he has yearned for Me and I will deliver him, I will be with him in distress, I will release him and I will honor him. I will satisfy him with long life and show him salvation.

Intercession

Sim Shalom

Be Sefer Hayim

Grant peace, welfare, blessing, grace, lovingkindness and mercy unto us, and unto all Israel, Your people. Bless us, O our Father, even all of us together, with the light of Your countenance, for by the light of Your countenance You have given us, O YHVH, our Elohim, the Law of life, lovingkindness and righteousness, blessing, mercy, life and peace. May it be good in Your sight to bless Your people Israel at all times and in every hour with Your peace. In the book of life, blessing, peace and good sustenance may we be remembered and inscribed before You, we and all Your people the house of Israel, for a happy life and for peace. Blessed are You, O YHVH, who makes peace.

Ochilah Lah-ayl

All: I will hope in Elohim; I will entreat His presence and beseech Him to grant me eloquence of language, that in the congregation of the people I may sing of His mighty power, and in joyful strains, rehearse His wonderful works. The dispositions of the heart are of man, but the utterance of speech is from YHVH. O YHVH, open my lips, and my mouth shall declare Your praise. May the words of my mouth and the meditations of my heart be acceptable in Your presence, O Eternal! My Rock and Redeemer.

All: Lord of the world who reigned alone before the earth was even formed, when by His will all things were created, the Name of our King was made known. And when this age ceases, He will still reign in majesty. He was, is and shall be all glorious eternally. Incomparable, He is One, no other can share His Name, without beginning and without end, and His is the strength and majesty. He is my living God who saves, my rock when trials or grief befall, my banner and my strong refuge, my full cup when I call. In His hand I place my soul whether asleep or awake, and with my soul and my body too, God is with me, I will have no fear.
