"All of you stand today before YHVH your Elohim: your leaders and your tribes and your elders and your officers, all the men of Israel, your little ones and your wives--also the stranger who [is] in your camp, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water, that you may enter into covenant with YHVH your Elohim, and into His oath, which YHVH your Elohim makes with you today, that He may establish you today as a people for Himself, and [that] He may be Elohim to you, just as He has spoken to you, and just as He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I make this covenant and this oath, not with you alone, but with [him] who stands here with us today before YHVH our Elohim, as well as with [him] who [is] not here with us today."
